Join Dr. Mark McClelland on this once-in-a-lifetime tour revisiting sites of the Apostle Paul's missionary journeys. Dr. McClelland will be your host and Bible teacher for this unforgettable journey.

Our adventure starts with an evening flight to Rome, Italy. Upon arrival in Rome, we will transfer to our hotel for dinner and a night of rest.

Tuesday morning, we will begin our tour with a visit to the ancient harbor city of Ostia Antica to see what Roman life was like during the time of Paul. Later that morning, we will board Royal Caribbean's Odyssey of the Seas, our home for the next twelve nights.

The first stop of our cruise will be Naples, Italy, the port of the once thriving and sophisticated Roman city of Pompeii. Here we will step back in time to get a glimpse of everyday life in the ancient world. We will take a guided tour of this famous city that lies at the foot of Mt. Vesuvius.

Thursday is a day at sea that begins with a morning Bible study with Dr. McClelland. The balance of the day can be spent enjoying the modern luxuries found onboard as we sail the Mediterranean.

Friday, we dock at the island of Santorini, the crown jewel of the Aegean. A cable car ride to the mountaintop city of Thira is provided. The day is yours to explore the many art galleries and shops or relax over a cup of coffee as you gaze over the scenic bay below.

Saturday, we dock in the Turkish port of Kusadasi. A short drive brings us to the ancient city of Ephesus, the greatest city in Asia Minor during the Roman Empire and home to one of the Seven Churches (Revelation 2-3).

Ephesus was the largest city the Apostle Paul visited, and the city where he confronted the followers of Diana (Acts 19:28). Just outside Ephesus we will visit the Basilica of St. John, erected over the Disciple John's grave by Emperor Justinian.

On Sunday we visit the beautiful port of Rhodes, Greece. This enchanting site, the most important of the three great cities of ancient times, is guarded by Medieval walls constructed by the Knights of St. John in the 13th century. There we will travel by bus along the eastern coastline to St. Paul's Bay where the Apostle Paul cast anchor during his historic voyage to Ephesus. Next, we will enjoy a walking tour through the medieval section of the city to view the Palace of the Knights.

On Monday we arrive at the port city of Limassol, Cyprus, where we will travel by bus to the town of Paphos, once the Roman capital of the island. In Paphos, Paul & Barnabas had an encounter with a demon-possessed Elymas, the sorcerer, and converted the Roman proconsul, Sergius Paulus. (Acts 13:10)

Paul's visit to Cyprus was his first journey outside of Palestine, where he preached to non-Jews.

Tuesday is another relaxing day at sea. You can take a swim, read a book, or enjoy the wonderful facilities of our cruise ship. This morning Dr. McClelland will lead us in a Bible study to prepare us for our time in Athens and Corinth.

On Wednesday morning, we arrive at the picturesque Greek island of Mykonos. There you may choose to shop, sample a local treat, or enjoy a relaxing stroll among the whitewashed houses of this iconic Greek fishing harbor.

Thursday morning, we arrive at the port of Piraeus, Greece. We begin the day with a drive to Corinth to view the remains of the ancient city to include; the ruins of the Temple of Apollo, the Site of the Olympic stadium, and the famous Bema, also known as the judgement seat. We will then travel to Athens, the birthplace of civilization, for a traditional Greek lunch. After lunch we will visit the Acropolis and Parthenon.

Nearby we will visit Mars Hill where Paul addressed the Athenians. (Acts 17:22-34) There we will pause for a message about the "unknown god." We will also see the Ancient Agora, Tower of the Winds, Herodes Atticus Theater, and the Theater of Dionysus.

Theater of Dionysus.

Friday, we call on Chania, Crete, the second largest city of Crete and one of the most beautiful cities on the island. The day is at your leisure to explore the ancient city of Aptera and enjoy the panoramic view of the Venetian Harbor with its famous lighthouse.

Saturday is another relaxing day at sea. This morning we will be led in a Bible study to prepare us for our time in Rome. You may spend the balance of the day enjoying the wonderful facilities of our cruise ship.

Sunday morning, we return to the port of Civitavecchia and begin our tour of the Eternal City of Rome. Sites to be visited include The Colosseum, the Arch of Titus, and the Roman Forum. We will then pause for a time of worship near the ruins of the Mamertine Prison where it is said that Paul was imprisoned for his beliefs. Our day will conclude with a visit to the cathedral of St. Paul Outside the Walls, the location of Paul's final resting place.

On Monday morning, we will visit the 2,000-year-old Pantheon, the Spanish Steps, and the Trevi Fountain. After lunch, we will drive by Circus Maximus, Piazza Venezia, and the monument of Vittorio Emanuele, before returning to our hotel for the dinner and the night.

Tuesday morning, we will say "Ciao" to Italy and transfer to the airport for our return flight home, having witnessed the inspirational and historic wonders of our Christian faith.
