Join Dr. Darryl Craft on this once-in-a-lifetime tour revisiting sites of the Apostle Paul's missionary journeys. Dr. Craft will be your host and Bible teacher for this unforgettable journey.

Our adventure starts with a morning flight to Rome, Italy. Upon arrival in Rome, we will begin our tour with a visit to the ancient harbor city of Ostia Antica to see what Roman life was like during the time of Paul. We will then head to lunch for some delicious food. Following lunch we will transfer to our hotel for dinner and a night of rest.

On Sunday morning, we'll savor a delightful breakfast and enjoy a leisurely start to the day. As the morning progresses, we'll make our way to the cruise terminal to board Royal Caribbean's Odyssey of the Seas—our home for the next ten nights.

The first stop of our cruise will be Naples, Italy, the port of the once thriving and sophisticated Roman city of Pompeii. Here we will step back in time to get a glimpse of everyday life in the ancient world. We will take a guided tour of this famous city that lies at the foot of Mt. Vesuvius.

Tuesday is a day at sea that begins with a morning Bible study with Dr. Craft to introduce us to the Apostle Paul. The balance of the day can be spent enjoying the modern luxuries found onboard as we sail the Mediterranean.

On Wednesday morning, we arrive at the island of Santorini, the crown jewel of the Aegean. A cable car ride to the mountaintop city of Thira is provided. The day is yours to explore the many art galleries and shops or relax and enjoy a gelato as you gaze over the scenic bay below.

On Thursday, we arrive at the port city of Piraeus, Greece. We begin the day with a drive to Corinth to view the remains of the ancient city to include: the ruins of the Temple of Apollo, the Site of the Olympic stadium, and the famous Bema, also known as the judgement seat. After a traditional Greek lunch, we will then travel to Athens, the birthplace of civilization, to tour the Acropolis and the Parthenon. Nearby we will visit Mars Hill where Paul addressed the Athenians about the "unknown god." (Acts 17:22-34) There we will pause for a special message from Dr. Craft. We will also see the Ancient Agora, Tower of the Winds, Herodes Atticus Theater, and the Theater of Dionysus.

On Friday, we dock in the Turkish port of Kusadasi. A short drive brings us to the ancient city of Ephesus, the greatest city in Asia Minor during the Roman Empire and home to one of the Seven Churches (Revelation 2-3). Ephesus was the largest city the Apostle Paul visited, and the city where he confronted the followers of Diana (Acts 19:28). Just outside Ephesus we will visit the Basilica of St. John, erected over the Disciple John's grave by Emperor Justinian.

Saturday afternoon is a two-day call at the iconic city of Istanbul, Turkey. We will begin with a visit to the infamous Grand Bazaar for some free time to shop and explore its vibrant atmosphere, marvel at the array of goods, and immerse ourselves in the rich culture and history of this iconic marketplace.

Sunday, our second day in Istanbul, begins with a panoramic tour, including the historic Topkapi Palace, known for its harem and treasure chambers. Next, we'll visit the grand Sultan Ahmed Mosque (Blue Mosque) with its six minarets, followed by the iconic Hagia Sophia, a former basilica-turned-mosque after the fall of Constantinople in 1453.

Monday & Tuesday are relaxing days at sea. While at sea Dr. Craft will lead us in a Bible study to prepare for our time in Rome. You may spend the balance of the days enjoying the wonderful facilities of our cruise ship.

Wednesday morning, we return to the port of Civitavecchia and begin our tour of the Eternal City of Rome. Sites to be visited include The Colosseum, the Arch of Titus, and the Roman Forum. We will then pause for a time of worship near the ruins of the Mamertine Prison where it is said that Paul was imprisoned for his beliefs. Our day will conclude with a visit to the cathedral of St. Paul Outside the Walls, the location of Paul's final resting place.

On Thursday morning, we will visit Vatican City, St. Peter's Basilica, and the Sistine Chapel. After lunch, we will drive by Circus Maximus, Piazza Venezia, and the monument of Vittorio Emanuele, before visiting the 2,000-year-old Pantheon, the Spanish Steps, and the Trevi Fountain.

Friday morning we will say "Ciao" to Italy and transfer to the airport for our return flight home, having witnessed the inspirational and historic wonders of our Christian faith.
