Join Dr. Ronny Raines on this once-in-a-lifetime tour revisiting sites of the Apostle Paul's missionary journeys. Dr. Raines will be your host and Bible teacher for this unforgettable journey.

Our adventure starts with a flight from Nashville to Athens, Greece. Upon arrival in Athens, we will transfer to our hotel for dinner and a night of rest.

Sunday morning after breakfast, we begin exploring Athens, the birthplace of civilization. We will begin with a visit to the Acropolis and Parthenon. Nearby we will visit Mars Hill, where Paul addressed the Athenians.

(Acts 17:22-34) While there, Dr. Raines will teach about the "unknown god." We will also see the Ancient Agora, Tower of the Winds, Herodes Atticus Theater, the Theater of Dionysus, and the Temple of Zeus while in Athens. After lunch there will be time for shopping in the old Plaka district.

Monday morning we will take a bus from Athens to visit nearby Corinth. Here we will view the remains of the ancient city of Corinth to include; the ruins of the Temple of Apollo, the Site of the Olympic stadium, and the famous Bema, also known as the judgement seat. At this site Paul defended himself before proconsul, Gallio. (Acts 18:12). After our time in Corinth, we will head back to Athens to the port of Piraeus to board Royal Caribbean's Voyager of the Seas, our home for the next seven-nights.

The first stop of our cruise will be the island of Mykonos. There you may choose to shop, take pictures, or enjoy a relaxing stroll through the whitewashed houses of this iconic Greek fishing harbor.

The next morning we will call on the Turkish port of Kusadasi.

A short drive brings us to the ancient city of Ephesus, the greatest city in Asia Minor during the Roman Empire and home to one of the Seven Churches (Revelation 2-3). Ephesus was the largest city the Apostle Paul visited, and the city where he confronted the followers of Diana (Acts 19:28). Just outside Ephesus we will visit the Basilica of St. John, erected over the Disciple John's grave by the Emperor Justinian.

Thursday morning we will arrive to Santorini, the crown jewel of the Aegean. A cable car ride to the mountaintop city of Thira is provided. The day is yours to explore the many art galleries and shops or relax over a cup of coffee as you gaze over the scenic bay below.

Friday is a day at sea enjoying the modern luxuries found onboard our ship as we sail the Mediterranean. Dr. Raines will lead a bible study, getting a closer look at what Scripture has to say about the Apostle Paul.

Saturday we will sail into Messina, Sicily. The entire day is at leisure to explore this lovely town. The one thing you will not want to miss is the world's largest astronomical clock in the Piazza del Duomo. When the bell strikes noon, Ave Maria begins playing and the bronze mechanical figures start to move. As the bell stops ringing, a statue of Jesus appears from a tomb on the bell tower.

Sunday the ship calls on Naples, Italy, the port of the once thriving and sophisticated Roman city of Pompeii. Here we will step back in time to get a glimpse of everyday life in the ancient world. We will take a guided tour of this famous city that lies at the foot of Mt. Vesuvius. Following dinner onboard, Dr. Raines will lead us in a bible study to prepare us for our arrival to Rome.

Monday morning we will disembark in Civitavecchia and travel by bus to the Eternal City of Rome. Here we will visit: The Colosseum, the Arch of Titus, and the Roman Forum. We will then pause for a time of worship near the ruins of the Mamertine Prison where it is said that Paul was imprisoned for his beliefs. After lunch we will drive by Circus Maximus and Piazza Venezia, and the monument of Vittorio Emanuele on the way back to our hotel.

On Tuesday morning, we will visit the cathedral of St. Paul Outside the Walls, the location of Paul's final resting place. There, Dr. Raines will lead us in a final teaching session as our tour concludes. After lunch you will have some free-time to explore Rome on your own.

Wednesday morning, we depart our hotel in Rome for the return flight home, having witnessed marvelous and historic wonders of our Christian faith.
