Walk the road where faith, courage, and liberty helped shape a nation.

From the colonial streets of Boston to the monuments of Washington, D.C., The Road to a Nation is an inspiring journey through some of the most important places in America's story. Pastors Winston Parrish and Heath Williams will be your hosts as you trace the influence of America's spiritual heritage through sites connected with George Whitefield, Jonathan Edwards, D. L. Moody, and other influential figures. Stand where patriots debated independence, soldiers endured the winter at Valley Forge, and a new nation established the principles of representative government. Along the way, experience historic churches, battlefields, landmarks, museums, and national memorials that bring the American story to life.

This is more than a sightseeing tour. It is an opportunity to consider the faith, sacrifice, courage, and conviction woven throughout America's history—and to remember the generations who traveled the road before us.

DAY 1 — BOSTON: WHERE THE STORY COMES ALIVE: Welcome to Boston!

Arrive in Boston and begin our journey in one of America's most historic cities. After time for lunch on your own at lively Quincy Market, we'll enjoy a guided tour introducing us to the people, places, and events that made Boston a cradle of American independence. We'll also visit the Longfellow House, a historic property with connections to both the American Revolution and one of America's most celebrated poets. Tonight, enjoy fellowship and an included dinner at Maggiano's before settling into our Boston-area hotel.
Overnight: Boston Area
Meal: Dinner

DAY 2 — FAITH THAT SHAPED A PEOPLE

After breakfast, our exploration of America's spiritual heritage begins at Phillips Academy, where we'll visit Missionary Rock and consider the missionary movement that sent generations of Americans around the world. We continue to Old South Presbyterian Church in Newburyport, the final resting place of renowned Great Awakening evangelist George Whitefield. After an included lunch at Michael's Harborside, we travel to Providence, Rhode Island, to visit First Baptist Church, whose history is closely associated with Roger Williams and the principle of religious liberty. Our day concludes with an included dinner at the historic Publick House in Sturbridge, Massachusetts.
Overnight: Ludlow, Massachusetts
Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

DAY 3 — REVIVAL, CONVICTION & COURAGE

Today we explore the lives and legacies of remarkable Americans. Visit the Moody Homestead and Moody Center and discover the story of evangelist D. L. Moody, whose ministry influenced millions in America and around the world. We'll also stop at a marker commemorating Jonathan Edwards and his preaching, recalling the powerful spiritual awakening that swept through the colonies during the 18th century. After lunch on your own, continue to the Nathan Hale Homestead, associated with the young American patriot remembered for his extraordinary devotion to the cause of liberty. Dinner is on your own this evening.
Overnight: New Brunswick, New Jersey Area
Meal: Breakfast

DAY 4 — THE BIRTH OF AMERICAN LIBERTY

After breakfast, travel to Valley Forge National Historical Park, where the Continental Army endured the legendary winter of 1777–78. Here, stories of perseverance, leadership, sacrifice, and determination offer a moving perspective on the price of independence. Then it's on to Philadelphia, where we'll walk through the historic heart of the city and visit Independence Hall, where both the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution were debated and adopted. Following lunch on your own, experience the outstanding Museum of the American Revolution, where artifacts and immersive exhibits tell the dramatic story of America's struggle for independence. Enjoy an included dinner in Philadelphia before traveling south to the Washington, D.C., area for a two-night stay.

Overnight: Washington, D.C. Area
Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

DAY 5 — REMEMBERING THE COST OF FREEDOM

Our final full day brings us face-to-face with the institutions, memorials, and sacrifices that continue to define the American experience. At Arlington National Cemetery, a tram tour takes us through one of the nation's most sacred places as we remember those who served and sacrificed. We'll continue to the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center before experiencing Washington's extraordinary memorials. Our memorial walk includes the World War II Memorial, Korean War Veterans Memorial, Lincoln Memorial, and Vietnam Veterans Memorial. Along the way, we'll see the Washington Monument, stop for a photograph near the White House, and drive by the Library of Congress and U.S. Supreme Court. Following an included dinner at the Fish Market Restaurant, our journey reaches a meaningful conclusion with an evening prayer service at Top of the Town, overlooking the nation's capital. It is a fitting place to reflect on the people, principles, sacrifices, and faith we have encountered along The Road to a Nation.

Overnight: Washington, D.C. Area
Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

DAY 6 — HOMEWARD BOUND

After breakfast, we transfer to the airport for our flight home, carrying with us a deeper appreciation for the remarkable people and defining moments that helped shape the United States of America.

Meal: Breakfast

Follow the footsteps. Hear the stories. Remember the sacrifices. From the voices of the Great Awakening to the struggle for American independence, from Valley Forge and Independence Hall to the U.S. Capitol and national memorials, discover the people and principles behind the American story.
