Join author & teacher Dr. Don Wilton on this once-in-a-lifetime tour revisiting sites of the Apostle Paul's missionary journeys. Dr. Wilton will be your host and Bible teacher for this unforgettable journey.

Upon arrival in Athens, we will transfer to our hotel for dinner and a night of rest.

Saturday morning, we will board the Celebrity Infinity, our home for the next nine nights.

Sunday we will arrive at Kavala, Greece, home of ancient Philippi. The Bible tells us that Paul and Silas came to Philippi in response to the Macedonian call (Acts 16:9). It was here that Paul won his first European convert, a woman named Lydia from the city of Thyatira. Some of the remains we will see at Philippi include the ancient theater, the Acropolis, the Baptistry of Lydia, the marketplace where Paul and Silas were brought before the rulers, and the cistern which tradition identifies as the actual place where Paul and Silas were imprisoned.

We dock at Thessaloniki on Monday and travel to the nearby town of Veria where Paul found a group of Jews "more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the Word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so" (Acts 17:10-14). We will visit a place where, according to tradition, Paul stood and delivered a sermon. On our return we will visit the Arch of Galerius and walk along the Via Egnatia, the road that was built to connect the ancient colonies of the Roman Empire from the Adriatic Sea all the way to Byzantium.

Tuesday is a relaxing day at sea. This morning Dr. Don Wilton will lead us in a Bible study to prepare us for our time in Rhodes and Ephesus. The balance of the day can be spent enjoying the luxuries of our cruise ship as we sail through the Mediterranean.

The following day we will arrive at the beautiful port of Rhodes, Greece. This enchanting site, the most important of the three great cities of ancient times, is guarded by Medieval walls constructed by the Knights of St. John in the 13th century. There we will travel by bus along the eastern coastline to St. Paul's Bay where the Apostle Paul cast anchor during his historic voyage to Ephesus. Next, we will enjoy a walking tour through the medieval section of the city to view the Palace of the Knights.

Thursday we arrive in the Turkish port of Kusadasi. A short drive brings us to the ancient city of Ephesus, the greatest city in Asia Minor during the Roman Empire and home to one of the Seven Churches (Revelation 2-3). Ephesus was the largest city the Apostle Paul visited, and the city where he confronted the followers of Diana (Acts 19:28). We will also visit the terrace houses, which are ancient residential villas for the upper class of Ephesus.

On Friday we call on the island of Santorini, the crown jewel of the Aegean. You will visit the picturesque city of Fira, renowned for its stunning views and charming ambiance. Here, you'll have the opportunity to wander through art galleries, browse unique shops, or unwind with a cup of coffee while taking in the breathtaking panorama of the bay below.

Saturday is another relaxing day at sea. The balance of the day can be spent enjoying the luxuries of our cruise ship as we sail through the Mediterranean.

On Sunday morning, we arrive at the scenic Greek island of Mykonos. There you may choose to shop, sample a local treat, or enjoy a relaxing stroll among the whitewashed houses of this iconic Greek fishing harbor.

Monday we arrive at the port city Piraeus, Greece to explore the historic city of Athens, and the birthplace of civilization. We will begin with a visit to the Acropolis and Parthenon. Nearby we will visit Mars Hill, where Paul addressed the Athenians. (Acts 17:22-34) While there, Dr. Wilton will teach about the "unknown god." We will also see the Ancient Agora, Tower of the Winds, Herodes Atticus Theater, Theater of Dionysus, and the Temple of Zeus while in Athens. After lunch there will be time for shopping in the old Plaka district.

On Tuesday, we will depart our hotel in Athens by bus for Corinth. There we will view the remains of the ancient city to include; the ruins of the Temple of Apollo, the Site of the Olympic stadium, the Roman Forum, and the famous Bema, also known as the judgement seat. At this site Paul defended himself before the proconsul, Gallio. (Acts 18:12).

Wednesday morning, we depart our hotel in Athens for the return flight home, having witnessed marvelous and historic wonders of our Christian faith.
